To be coded as an image

Navigation Links to be coded as text

To be made as a background image

Text to be selectable over background image

Desktop Version

Two column structure, text to be left aligned, ASCII equivalent to be used for bullets

Text to be selectable

Image can be coded as a background image with selectable text or curved edges can be sliced separately (should not have any white lines)

Mobile Version

Navigation links should change to hamburger menu in mobile version

On-click menu should pop-down in mobile version

Background image to be hidden and scalable image to be displayed in mobile version

2-column structure should change to a 2 row structure

CTA button to scale down to mobile device width. Text should be selectable and rounded edges should be present without any white lines.